Who are we?

Travel Tilago is a leading Destination Management Company specializing in tailor-made events across Croatia and Slovenia.

We organize meetings and conferences, selecting impactful venues in inspiring destinations.

Our meeting programmes range from intimate gatherings for smaller teams to larger-scale events, always held in settings that foster creativity—both through their design and their surroundings.

While some programmes are fully business-focused, maximizing productivity throughout the day, others blend work with curated group activities to create engaging company offsites.

We turn ideas into memorable experiences – from flawless conferences and creative incentive trips to exclusive corporate events. With a strong local network, innovative solutions, and exceptional service, we ensure every detail is perfectly executed.

CROATIA AS EVENT DESTINATION

Strategic Location and Accessibility

Located at the crossroads of Central Europe and the Mediterranean, Croatia is well-connected to major European cities by air. Major cities like Zagreb, Split, and Dubrovnik have international airports with frequent flights, making it easy to organize arrivals for larger groups.

Safety

Croatia is safest country in the world!

High-Quality Hotels and event Infrastructure

Croatia boasts numerous luxury hotels and resorts with conference halls and all necessary amenities for meetings, events and conferences.

CROATIA AS EVENT DESTINATION

Rich Culture and History

Cities like Dubrovnik, Split, Trogir, and Rovinj offer authentic historical settings for a variety of incentive programs. Events can be held in ancient palaces, fortresses or even within Diocletian's Palace in Split – all under UNESCO protection.

Gastronomy and Enology

Croatia offers top-quality cuisine based on local ingredients and traditional recipes, often with a modern twist. Many regions are known for their wine and olive oil and organizing wine tours, tastings or culinary workshops is often a highlight of teambuilding programs.

Natural Beauty and Diversity

From the Adriatic coastline with over 1,000 islands to national parks such as Plitvice Lakes and Krka, Croatia offers spectacular locations for outdoor activities, adventure programs, team building or exclusive dinners in unique settings.

ISTRIA REGION

Located in the Northern Adriatic, the Istrian peninsula is the closest Mediterranean destination to most Central European countries. Istria offers exceptional hotels and conference facilities, making it an ideal destination for business events and incentives. The interior of Istria has many taverns and wine cellars where you can experience an authentic atmosphere and taste traditional local dishes complemented by local wines such as Malvasia, Teran or Istrian Muscat (a famous dessert wine).

A green oasis and the largest peninsula of the Adriatic where you can spend unforgettable moments both along the 445-km-long coast or inland, which, apart from endless vineyards and olive groves, also boasts prized truffles which can be found in the dense forests.

DUBROVNIK

Dubrovnik as a conference and incentive destination offers numerous options for the organization of unique and truly unforgettable events.

Its uniqueness is reflected in its rich historical and cultural heritage combined with beautiful nature - the Mediterranean hinterland and the blue of the Adriatic Sea. In combination with high-quality congress and accommodation infrastructure Dubrovnik is an unmissable destination for event organizers.

What makes Dubrovnik stand out as a meetings and event destination are its historic locations as event spaces that can enhance any event with their ambiance and historical charm - from formal receptions and dinners, to the presentation and premier of new products.

SPLIT

Split is not only one of the most beautiful cities on the Adriatic – it's also one of the most exciting emerging destinations for business tourism.

Split is easily accessible from all major European cities thanks to its international airport, located just 25 minutes from the city center. With a growing number of direct flights, arrival is simple and efficient – making Split an ideal hub for both regional and international events.

Split offers a unique combination of ancient history, authentic Mediterranean charm, and modern business infrastructure. It's a city where the Roman emperor Diocletian built his grand palace over 1,700 years ago – and that palace still forms the heart of today's UNESCO-listed Old Town.

With its stunning waterfront promenade, pleasant climate, and walkable center, Split is ideal for hosting MICE events of all sizes, especially small to mid-range programs. It's a city that blends professionalism with atmosphere – a place where every meeting has a view and every event has character.

ZADAR

What sets Zadar apart is its ability to blend business with exceptional experiences. Host your event in a centuries-old palace, a contemporary waterfront venue or even on a yacht overlooking the stunning Zadar archipelago.

After a productive day, attendees can explore Zadar's ancient Roman and Venetian heritage, visit the world-renowned Sea Organ and Greeting to the Sun installations or enjoy a wine-tasting session in the nearby countryside.

Its strategic location in the centre of the Adriatic coast and excellent accessibility make it a breeze for attendees to reach. The Region boasts modern infrastructure and professional facilities tailor-made for meetings and events of all types and sizes.

ISLAND HVAR

Ideal for incentives, Hvar effortlessly combines island relaxation with a world of exploration. For team incentives, enjoy diving in the Pakleni archipelago, adventuring around the UNESCO-listed Stari Grad or climbing the Sveti Nikola peak for panoramic vistas of the surrounding islands.

A blend of rich cultural heritage and magnificent nature make Hvar the perfect Croatian location for your unique event. The island's varied hospitality offer includes heritage hotels, famous festivals, and parties, as well as restaurants serving praised Hvar specialties based on fresh fish, homegrown fruit, and vegetables.

The heavenly climate, the nearby magical beaches of the Paklenski Islands archipelago, along with plenty of coastal and inland sites and venues, make Hvar one of the ultimate MICE destinations in Croatia, perfectly suited for exceptional and memorable incentives.
